RISK MANAGEMENT FOR CORPORATE LEADERS:
From Compliance to Competitive Advantage

WWW.EXED.HBS.EDU/PROGRAMS/RISK/

Program Objectives
Risk Management for Corporate Leaders examines how risk can cause good business strategies to fail and how companies can protect themselves from the consequences of unexpected events, including sudden geopolitical crises, natural disasters and competitive threats. Through real-world examples, the program illustrates how to develop and implement processes that anticipate, prioritize, mitigate, and manage threats across the enterprise—ranging from failures in compliance and internal controls to risks emanating from strategy or caused by uncontrollable external events. By learning how to integrate risk management processes and decision-making structures into your company’s strategy and execution, you can turn unexpected events into new business opportunities.
